CREATING MOCCASIN TRACKS

Skills Building and Cultural Exchange Conference

February 8-12, 2021

The conference theme, “creating moccasin tracks” is based in a teaching about the importance and responsibility to leave a good path for the coming generations to follow.

Join us in listening to presenters as they share their personal journey related to TRAUMA, MENTAL WELLNESS, and ADDICTIONS. We also have a line up of Elders who will be sharing cultural teachings.

Participate in a wide variety of workshops that share information about trauma, decolonization & Indigenization, understanding and dealing with our emotions; working reciprocally with medicine, understanding addictions and treatments, cultural teachings and so much more. This conference is open to everyone wanting to learn and share in creating good moccasin tracks – community members, staff, chief and council.

*for a single workshop or the whole event.

FEATURING:

THEO FLEURY

Theo Fleury is many things. Perhaps best known for his time on the ice as an NHL hockey champion, Theo's most important work has been accomplished outside of the rink as a motivational speaker sharing his traumatic past. By sharing his experiences, Theo hopes he can provide courage and hope to others struggling with their own demons.
