

Code of Conduct

Board Member, committee members and staff of the organization will at all times conduct themselves in a manner that:

- Supports the objectives of the organization and specifically the health program.
- Serves the overall best interests of the organization rather than any particular community.
- Brings credibility and good will to the organization.
- Respects principles of fair play and due process.
- Demonstrates respect for individuals in all manifestations of their cultural and linguistic diversity and life circumstances.
- Respects and gives fair consideration to diverse and opposing viewpoints.
- Demonstrates good faith, prudent judgement, honesty, transparency and openness in their activities on behalf of the organization.
- Ensures that the areas of committee duties are conducted in a responsible and transparent manner.
- Ensures that attendance and punctuality at committee meetings is maintained and respects the time contributions of fellow committee members.
- Avoids real or perceived conflicts of interest.
- Conforms to these policies and code of conduct.
- Publicly demonstrates acceptance, respect and support for decisions and recommendations made through the governing structures.
